Enchanted on Ice—Summer Show/Food Drive—July 26

July 10, 2014

Princesses, villains, heroes, loveable sidekicks. They are all here as songs from our favorite movies fill the rink and practice is underway for the summer show. It's not too late to sign-up and join the fun: deadline is July 12th. EntryEeze link is <http://comp.entryeeze.com/Home.aspx?cid=428>.

Remember to encourage people to attend and bring a canned or pantry food item donation to help the food bank.

We want to have a great audience to cheer us on!

Taste of Summer—July 19

How does all you can eat ice cream for $5 sound? Bands, arts & crafts, vendors, family-friendly activities?

Then come visit the joint TFSC and Oilers Ice Center booth at the Taste of Summer Ice Cream Festival. We'll be there from 10am-5pm to talk to the public about skating in our community. And sampling some ice cream of course.

Find out all the details on their event page here.

HELP REQUESTED—if you can help take a shift at the club table or have access to a 10'x10' pop-up shade gazebo we could use, please contact Angie ASAP.

Congratulations to our newest judge, Jamie Rooks, on her first appointment! We are proud of your accomplishment.

Competition team on the move

Kudos to Josiah on his new personal best achieved at the Broadmoor Open.

Fresh off the competition at Broadmoor, our skaters next move to the Cannon Texas Open this week. Good luck to Ellie, Maclean, Ryan, Kelsey, and Jaycee!

Almost a dozen skaters are slated to go to the Mid-Continent Classic in August. What a great showing that will be. Bravo, Team Tulsa.

Last, but not least, a huge shout out to Natalie Bashforth. She will be representing TFSC at the USFS National Showcase Championships in Burbank, California this August.
